HORROCKS ESTATE SETTLEMENT

Substantial Reduction in Electric Light Bills—John V. Bluth Resigns—Utahna Drug Co.

Ogden, Utah, June 29.—The constitutionality of the law creating the Juvenile court is to be tested in Weber county. Last evening Atty. Arthur E. Christensen of Salt Lake City filed in the Second district court an application for a writ of habeas corpus in behalf of Harry Benson, minor. The application requested that Judge Howell issue an order citing Supt. E. M. Allison of the State Industrial school to appear in court with Harry Benson, and to show cause why said Harry Benson should not be released from confinement at the State Industrial school in which institution he was committed June 18, 1904, by Judge Brown of the Juvenile court, Salt Lake City. The court issued an order for Supt. Allison to appear in court July 12, at 10 o'clock, with the young man.

The application reads forth that March 28, Harry Benson was arrested in Salt Lake City by Probation Officer M. M. Woods, and was taken before Judge Brown of Salt Lake, on the charge of forcibly taking from F. O. Hayward $8 in money. He was found guilty of the charge and was ordered committed to the State Industrial school by Mr. Webster, his grandmother, and was sent to Ogden to visit for a short time with his family, who still live here.

Doctors and Court Intercede and Mrs. D. P. Page is Discharged.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

Richfield, Nev., Co., June 28.—A young woman by the name of Florence Pace wife of J. D. Pace of Salt Lake was brought before Judge Chidester today charged with being a fit subject for treatment at the State Mental Hospital. From the testimony of the witnesses, relatives of the hearing, it appears that Mr. Pace was divorced from his first wife by whom he had two children, and that the second Mrs. Pace had objected to the manner in which these children were spending their husband's means. She had requested him to divide the portion which he considered herself entitled to. This he had repeatedly refused to do and Mrs. Pace was considerably wrought up in her feelings on account of her husband failing to protect what she considered her interest in his property, now that he was separated from his wife. Doctors Neill and McGraw made the customary examination and were unanimous in their opinion that the patient ought to be discharged and the judge so ordered.
